Re: G.W. Wireless, Inc.
Report of Employment Complaints

Dear Ms. Dortch:

G.W. Wireless, Inc. ("GW") hereby notifies the Federal Communications Commission that it has never had any employees or any employment complaints filed against it. Nonetheless and out of an abundance of caution, GW is formally notifying the Commission that there have been no employment complaints against GW for the reporting periods covering calendar years 2000, 2002, 2003 and 2004 in which it had no employees.<sup>1</sup>

Inasmuch as GW has had no employees during the affected reporting periods and Instruction A (Who Must File) to the Form 395 indicates that "[t]he FCC Form 395, Common Carrier Annual Employment Report, is to be filed by all licensees and permittees of common carrier stations with sixteen (16) or more full time employees . . .", GW did not realize that while it was not required to file the Form 395, it was nonetheless required to file an annual report of employment complaints using either the FCC Form 395 or a standard letter to the FCC. Upon discovering this requirement, in connection with a separate matter, GW directed counsel to prepare the required letter in order to report that no employment complaints had been received in each of the calendar years that no report had previously been filed. Inasmuch as GW had no employees and no such employment complaints were filed against the Company, GW requests, to the extent deemed necessary, a waiver of Section 22.321 of the Commission's Rules to permit the filing and acceptance of the instant report.

<sup>1</sup> G.W. Wireless, Inc. filed the Form 395 in 2001, 2005, 2006, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016 even though it was not required to do so since it had no employees during those reporting periods. In each of these cases, the Form 395 indicated that there were no employment complaints. In 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, when it had more than 16 full-time employees, it submitted the required Form 395 Annual Employment Report and Report of Employment Complaints.

Wherefore, for good cause shown, it is respectfully submitted that a grant of the instant request would be in the public interest.

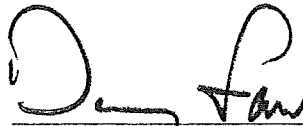

Please direct any questions or correspondence regarding this filing to our counsel, as follows:
